

Dr. Kahn is a Public Health physician with extensive experience in public health/communicable diseases/health emergencies at the national and international level.

For the past 17 years, Dr. Kahn has been working as a Regional Medical Health Officer at the First Nations and Inuit Health Branch Regina-Saskatchewan Region, Indigenous Services Canada.

“It is an honour to work for Indigenous people of Saskatchewan, Canada.”