The Métis Nation—Saskatchewan Provincial Citizenship Registry (MNS-R) can access Vital Statistics Record information for births, marriages, and legal name changes directly from eHealth, effective September 15, 2020.

If you will require records to show a name change to complete your application with the MNS-R please complete the following page. If you already have some or all the records needed to show any changes from your birth name to your current legal name, you can submit copies, with or after you submit your application.

If a name change was due to adoption, documentation to show the name change would need to be requested by the applicant to Post-Adoption Services, from the province they were adopted in, not the province they were adopted from. They should request their Adoption Papers and their Long Form Birth Certificate.

Please indicate the reason/event for the name cha	inge.
