DRAFT
for discussion purposes

Existing	Proposed	Explanation
Article 1: Title 1. This Act may be cited as "The Métis Nation – Saskatchewan Citizenship Act, 1999."	Short title 1 This Act may be cited as the Citizenship Act, 2024 .	The phrase “Métis Nation Saskatchewan” should not be formally included in the short title to every enactment of the MNLA. Each Act can still be described, if necessary, as being an MNLA enactment but the short title should be a more concise name.
2. In this Act:	Definitions 2 In this Act:
2.1. "Act" shall mean the Métis Nation – Saskatchewan Citizenship Act.		It is not necessary to define “Act” as whenever the Act is referred to it is described as “this Act”.
2.2. "Appeals" shall mean any written objection by a person who has been rejected entry in the Métis Nation - Saskatchewan Central Registry or by a Métis Nation - Saskatchewan citizen who is objecting to the registration of any person to the Métis Nation - Saskatchewan Central Registry.		It is not necessary to define the word “appeals”; the rights of appeal and rights to object are set out in the provisions of the Act.
2.3. "Child" shall mean a child of a Métis citizen.		It is not necessary to define “child” because of the context in which this word is used throughout the Act.
none	“Constitution” means the Métis Nation – Saskatchewan Constitution ;	The proposed amendments to the Constitution include a formal title by which it may be referred to.
2.4. Repealed February 20, 2021

Existing	Proposed	Explanation
2.5. "Membership" shall mean citizenship.		The term "Membership" is used only in the current Article 13 which is a transitional provision which is no longer needed.
2.6. "Métis" means a person who is Métis as defined in Article 10 of the Constitution	"Métis" means a person who is Métis as defined in the Constitution;	The definition of who is Métis is contained in the Constitution. This Act only provides for the process of applying for and becoming registered.
2.7. Repealed February 20, 2021.
2.8. Repealed February 20, 2021.
2.9. "Métis Nation Legislative Assembly" shall mean the governing authority of the Métis Nation - Saskatchewan, as set out in the Constitution.	"MNLA" means the Métis Nation Legislative Assembly provided for in the Constitution;	Added for clarity; this term was to be defined in the Interpretation Act , which is not going forward at this time.
	"MN-S Citizen" means a Métis person who is registered in the registry as a citizen of the Métis Nation – Saskatchewan;	Added for clarity; this term was to be defined in the Interpretation Act , which is not going forward at this time.
	"PMC" means the Provincial Métis Council provided for in the Constitution;	Added for clarity; this term was to be defined in the Interpretation Act , which is not going forward at this time.
2.10. "Records" shall mean any records used to support an application for citizenship including historical records, church records,		The terms "genealogical evidence" and "records" are only used in reference to applications and so the substance of the archival records, census records and oral history from Métis Elders.		definitions is included in the provision relating to applications for registration.

2.11. "Registered" shall mean registered as a Métis under this Act.		The term "registered" as used in the Act always refers to being registered as a Métis citizen so the word "registered" doesn't have to be defined.
2.12. "Registrar" shall mean the Registrar appointed by the Métis Nation Legislative Assembly to administer the Central Registry.	"Registrar" means the Registrar appointed pursuant to section 3;	Section 3 refers to the Registrar being appointed by the MNLA.
2.13. "Genealogical evidence" shall mean evidence which indicates proof that an applicant's parent is, or parents are, of Métis Ancestry.		The terms "genealogical evidence" and "records" are only used in reference to applications and so the substance of the definitions is included in the provision relating to applications for registration.
none	"registry" means the central registry of MN-S Citizens maintained by the Registrar in accordance with section 5;	Provides clarity about references in the Act to the Registry.
none	"Registry Office" means the Registry Office established pursuant to section 4.	Provides clarity about references in the Act to the Registry Office.
ARTICLE EIGHT - THE REGISTRAR 8. The Registrar: 8.1.1. [Repealed September 9, 2008.] 8.1.2. [Repealed September 9, 2008.] 8.1.3. [Repealed September 9, 2008.]	Registrar 3(1) The MNLA shall appoint a Registrar to administer the Registry.  (2) The Registrar shall:	The Registrar is appointed by the MNLA. This statement is currently included in the definition of the term "Registrar" but is better placed in the Act as a substantive provision and not just a definition.
